5 Credit Unions join myCUmortgage in the Third Quarter

FAIRBORN, Ohio (October 20, 2010) – myCUmortgage® (www.myCUMortgage.com) announced today that five credit unions have partnered with the mortgage CUSO in the third quarter.

They include:

1. AEA Federal Credit Union (based in Yuma, Ariz., with $348 million in assets)
2. Fire Police City County Federal Credit Union (based in Fort Wayne, Ind., with $73 million in assets)
3. Universal 1 Credit Union (based in Dayton, Ohio, with $294 million in assets)
4. Metro Employees Credit Union (based in Lexington, Ky., with $14 million in assets)
5. Century Federal Credit Union (based in Cleveland, Ohio, with $325 million in assets)

The five credit unions will benefit from myCUmortgage's service levels, collaborative processes and technology, which is powered by Prime Alliance Solutions.

“We are excited to add these credit union partners to the myCUmortgage collaboration,” said Tim Mislansky, president of myCUmortgage. “Our mortgage lending programs make it easy for credit unions to help their members with homeownership, while providing lower costs to members and greater revenue for credit union partners.”
